Dr. Beckwith's letter.

CAUTION to those who purchase or take BECK-WITH'S anti-dyspeptic pills.

I have satisfactory evidence that Beckwith's pills have been extensively counterfeited in various parts of the country, and particularly at New York, and sold at prices much below what the genuine article can be afforded at.

Since the agency of Mr. Henry D. Turner, John street, New York, ceased, on the 14th February, 1844, I have appointed no agents, and now have none in any section, except Dr. T. W. Dyott & Sons, of the Columbian College, Philadelphia. Those, therefore, who wish to purchase or take the genuine pills, must obtain them either of myself, or of those gentlemen, or of persons known to purchase them of one or the other. Dr. Dyott & Sons are enabled by me to sell upon the same terms as I do myself.

JOHN BECKWITH, Late of Raleigh, N. C., Proprietor. Petersburg, June 1, 1845.

Public notice. Public sotice.

It will be seen by Dr. John Beckwith's letter, dated June 1st, 1845, that he has discontinued all agencies on commission for the sale of his (Beckwith's) anti-dyspeptic pills, and has established one principal office, which is at the Columbian College, No. 132 North Second street, Philadelphia, where the public are recommended to apply for the genuine pills.

Druggists and dealers supplied on very liberal terms.

Protection against counterfeits.

Dr. Beckwith, proprietor of "Beckwith's antidyspeptic pills," having suffered great loss, as well as those who have been in the practice of using his pills being disappointed and their health injured:

It will be seen by Dr. Beckwith's letter of June 1, 1845, that he has adopted the only safe plan for himself and the public against these miscreants, by having placed the sale of his medicine in the hands of one special agent, where every one who wishes to be supplied with the genuine article must apply.

Dr. T. W. Dyott & Sons, of the Columbian College, No. 133 North Second street, Philadelphia, are the only persons appointed to supply the above pills in quantity, as no counterfeit article is permitted in their establishment. Dealers and the public will be safe in supplying themselves as above.

Wright's Indian vegetable pills counterfeited.

Wright's Indian regetable pills counterfeited.

The proprietor of Wright's Indian vegetable pills has discovered that his pills are counterfeited and extensively circulated through the country by persona unauthorized by him.

Dealers in the above pills are therefore respectfully informed that Dr. T. W. Dyott & Sons, of the Columbian College, No. 132 North Second street, Philadelphia, are the only persons authorized by me to sell my pills, in quantity, at the same prices as myself.

Any other persons travelling through the country offering my pills in quantity, and at reduced prices, are assuredly base counterfeiters, and ought to be rejected as such by every "honest dealer," and it is to be hoped will be, if it is only for the health and the lives of the public.
